

How the Cimarron River Got Its Name and Other Stories About Coffee

This compilation of cowboy lore, legends, lies, and other bits of truth about coffee and its origins includes the story Good Coffee is a State of Mind by J. Frank Dobie. Published in its entirety for the first time, Dobies narrative brings us little-known tales of famous westerners such as Sam Houston, who set a good example because he drank his coffee without cream or sugar. Foreword by novelist Clay Reynolds.
