

Donald Bleznick has translated works by ten of Spains most distinguished intellectuals. His collection demonstrates the significance of Spanish contributions to contemporary Western thought through discourses on history, art, literature, aesthetics, philosophy and political theory. Bleznick seeks to rectify American and European injustices against Spain in their negligence to fully embrace cultural accomplishments and artistic endeavors. The essays are published here for the first time in English. Contents: Selections from ten authors: Pedro Lain Entralgo, Jose Luis Abellan, Francico Ayala, Elias Diaz, Jose Jimenez Lozano, Jose Carlos Mainer, Xavier Rubert De Ventos, Fernando Savater, Eduardo Subirats, Eugenio Trias.
