

TRIED FOR HER LIFE

WOW!! WHAT A FIND!!! A Sequel to Cruel as the Grave. Mrs. Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte SOUTHWORTH, author, born in Washington, D. C., 26th December, 1819. Her maiden name was Nevitte. Her mother was married twice, the second time to Joshua L. Henshaw, in whose school she was educated. Miss Nevitte was graduated in 1835, and in 1840 became the wife of Frederick H. Southworth, of Utica, N. V. From 1844 to 1849 she taught in one of the public schools in Washington, and while there employed she began to write stories. Her first story, The Irish Refugee, appeared in the Baltimore Saturday Visitor. She then wrote dramatic and finely descriptive works, which attained a remarkable popularity. In 1853 she and her husband settled on Potomac Heights, near Washington, where they lived until their removal to Yonkers, N. Y., in 1876. Mrs. Southworth devised for her own use the manila box-envelope, which was afterwards patented by others. Her published novels number over sixty. In 1872 she brought out a uniform edition of her works, consisting of forty- two stories, beginning with Retribution and ending with The Fatal Secret. Her later stories are: Unknown (1874); Gloria (1877); The Trail of the Serpent (1879); Nearest and Dearest (1881); The Mothers Secret (1883), and An Exiles Bride (1887). Besides these she has published others as serials in the New York Ledger. Many of her novels have been translated into French, German and Spanish, and republished in Montreal, London, Paris, Leipzig and Madrid.

Portland's Solar Equipment Installation Experts Referral SOLAR Save Money Help the Environment Gain Power Independence Learn About the Benefits of Solar Panels

"I had solar panels installed on my roof in July. Rob from Referral solar is very experienced and professional. He gave me recommendations based on my home and helped me choose from the different payment options based on my budget."

Judy C.

"I'm using zero net electricity and that feels wonderful. I've had the system up and running for two months now, and the results are better than I expected!"

Daniel M.

"I would highly recommend Referral Solar Portland to everyone! They installed solar panels at my home about a year ago. We've had rain since the install and no leaks to report. The energy we've been generating is consistent and clean. I couldn't be more pleased."
