

Witness: The Selected Poems of Mario Benedetti

It gives me great pleasure to see the work of Benedetti, one of the great poets of our language, made available to US readers in Popkins wonderful translations. Her carefully crafted adaptations of Marios poems convey all the wisdom, nostalgia, and irony that inform his verses in language that retains their musicality. Anyone who has translated poetry will appreciate what an accomplishment that represents. Claribel Alegria Mario Benedetti (1920-2009) is regarded as one of Latin Americas most important twentieth-century writers and one of Uruguays most revered writers of novels, short stories, poetry, plays, and essays.
